

On the 12th, men started from Quebec to give assistance.

On the 11th, father Druilletes returned from Tadousak.

*Father Druilletes's return from Tadousac.
Day of the Assumption.*

On the 15th, a solemn procession was made, the order of which is inserted here on a separate paper:¹³ the rest occurred as in The former years.

On the 22nd arrived the news of the death of robert le coq, and of the wounding of several others by the yroquois near 3 rivers. We Announced at the refectory the suffrages for robert, in these terms: " All the Fathers will say 6 masses, and the brethren six Rosaries, for the late robert le Coq, deceased in this country in the perpetual service of the Society;" and, the next day, the mass for him was said. He was killed on the 20th.¹⁴

Death of robert le Coq.

Suffrages.

On the 23rd there sailed, by the small vessel of la rochelle, father pierre pijart, father greslon, and father françois duperon; Sieur gendron, Joseph boursier, alias desforges, Louys le boême, and louys Pinar and Michel.¹⁵

Departure of the vessel of la rochelle.

On the last day of August arrived our brother liegeois, who brought us news of the last vessel, which was near. This vessel anchored before Quebec on the 8th of September.

Arrival of our brother liegeois.

At the feast of St. Augustine, the Ursulines observed the 40 hours, 4 Days before, and the hospital nuns 3 Days after, the feast; and on Sunday, which was the Day of St. Augustine, a procession was made, as usual, to the 2 religious houses.

*40 hours' devotion on
St. Augustine's day.*