

OCTOBER.

24th. Father Poncet arrives — in a wretched canoe, conducted by some Iroquois — at Mon-real; he is dressed in Dutch fashion.

On the 28th, he arrives at three Rivers, in the flyboat, which they encountered among the Isles of Richelieu.

Father Poncet delivered.

NOVEMBER.

4. The Father arrives at Quebecq with Father Richard, Monsieur boucher, and 7 Iroquois; 3 guns were fired.

6th. The Annien,e'ronnons make their presents, to the number of 16.

On the 9th, we make them presents in return: 23 presents. The hospital mothers make them a feast; we do the same, toward evening.

On the 10th, Captain Pointel weighs Anchor; Father Joseph du Peron embarks. The winter begins in good earnest.

Father Joseph du Perron goes back to france.

On the eleventh, solemn mass is sung, by way of thanksgiving. The Iroquois go to spend the night at Sillery; also Father la place, who goes up to three Rivers in place of Father Richard.

Te Deum, on account of The peace.

Father La place relieves Father Richard at 3 Rivers.

On the 13th, arrives Monsieur d'Espiné, from Tadoussac, with Letters from Father Albanel, who went thither to go into the Saguenay.

On the 14th, it snows heavily. On the 15th, Father la place arrives at 3 Rivers.

On the 17th, news from 3 Rivers concern-