The 28th. Francois Peltier arrived; he had gone with Monsieur sorel. He reported that, at a distance of two days' journey from Annié, they met the flemish Bastard and 3 others, who were bringing back sieur de Lerole, and others. They all returned with them, without going farther. The savages are offended because, after taking the bastard and others, we did not leave them at their disposal.

Here at the same time is a band from sonnontwan and oiogwen, consisting of over one hundred persons—70 men, the remainder women and children. There are also two or 3 onnontager'onons.

The 29th. On this day the translation of the bodies of st. Flavianus and st. Felicitas took place with great solemnity. All the priests were in chasubles or copes. The authorities carried the first canopy. The floor of the ursulines' Church gave way, under the weight of the crowd of people, as the procession came out. Many fell into the vault, which is rather deep; but no one was injured.
