

The 7th. The ship Moulin d'or arrived, with 4 Ecclesiastics of st. sulpice.

4 Ecclesiastics of Saint Sulpice.

The 8th. We gave a dinner to those gentlemen, the recently-arrived Ecclesiastics.

The 14th. Monsieur de Tracy and Monsieur the governor embarked to go to war with over 400 habitants, natives of the country, volunteers, and others. He asked me for Fathers Albanel and Raffeix. Of our own accord we gave six men—among others, Guillaume Boyvin and Charles Boquet.

Six men for The war.

The 20th. Father Jacques Marquette arrived, in good health, on the 7th ship.

Father Jacques
marquette.

The 30th. Father Bardy and Father Nouvel embarked on a voyage to three Rivers.

OCTOBER.

The 5th. Finally, the last ship, called the fortune blanche, arrived, after having encountered many dangers,—having lost her anchors, run aground 4 leagues from here, etc.,—and, above all, after losing 5 men, who went ashore near Tadoussac, and are thought to have been captured by the Iroquois.

5 men lost.

On the same day, we received good news of the army, which numbers fully 14 hundred men. All the Gentlemen were in very good health. They entered lake Champlain on the 28th or 29th of last month. The weather was very fine.

Army of 1400 men.

In accordance with the opinion of Monsieur de Tracy, Antecedenter, and with the Advice of Monsieur The Intendant, We notified Mon-

Pew in our Church
for The Company.
