

They learned from some old men, who remained behind, that quite recently news had come that the army of onnonta,é had been defeated by the Andasto,e'ronons.

The 8th. The flemish bastard was sent back with an elder of Annié; item, two from onneiout—among others, a captain named Soenres; they were commissioned to tell their people that within the space of four moons they were to give satisfaction to onnontio on the propositions made by him for the good of the people,—and, among others, to bring some of their families.

The 14th. The Te deum was sung in the cathedral church when the first news came of the happy success of Monsieur de Tracy's Expedition, and mass was chanted with a procession in gratiarum actionem.

Te Deum pro
victoria.

On the same day the last two ships weighed anchor.

The 16th. The vessels were delayed by the Northeast wind, and are only four leagues from here.

The 17th. It is freezing very hard, but the wind is favorable.

The 26th. A Store-ship, with 45 men on board, which had been caught in the ice and drifted about with the Tide for 6 days from the outlet of lake st. Pierre, arrived near quebec. The men got out on the ice-floes, and were rescued by canoes and boats that put out to their assistance. The store-ship, being unable to reach the land, was lost with the guns, blankets, etc., on board;

Store-ship lost.
