

one of them would be to recall him here, to live a little more comfortably; while the sole desire of those who are here is to go and share the labors and the merits of those apostles. I recommend every one of them, and above all myself, to the Holy Sacrifices of Your Reverence; and I am

Your very humble and very obedient . . .

CLAUDE DABLON, J.