

the archives concerning the history of the volume or of the documents it contains; but Crépieul's chirography is easily recognizable. From the water-mark on the fly-leaves, it is evident that the MSS. were bound subsequent to 1831.

CLVIII

Beschefer's two letters to Cabart de Villermont, dated at Quebec, September 19 and October 22, 1687, we obtain from contemporary copies of the MSS. in the Bibliothèque Nationale, at Paris. They are in the Collection Clairambault, Cabinet des Manuscrits, the press-mark being Vol. 1016, folios 489-492.
