

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DATA: VOL. LXVI

CLXXVIII

This document consists of four letters written in or about 1702 to Jean de Lamberville, from Illinois missionaries: two from Jacques Gravier in March; and two from Gabriel Marest—one in July, and the other in November. We follow MSS. in the Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.

CLXXIX

We follow the original MS. of this letter of Martin Bouvart to Count de Pontchartrain, written in 1702, which now rests in the Archives du Ministère des Colonies, its press-mark being: Tome 106, carton 11, folio 451.

CLXXX, CLXXXII

In publishing both of these documents, we follow apographs in the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal, made by Father Martin.

CLXXX. is a French letter from Jean Mermet to "the Jesuits in Canada," written at Kaskaskia, March 2, 1706.

CLXXXII. is a letter in Latin, written by Jacques Gravier at Paris, March 6, 1707, and addressed to the father general; the apograph is in the archival cahier labeled "Aux Généraux."
