Lyons Edition—1819

This Lyons edition professes to follow literally Querbeuf's edition of 1780-83. It consists of fourteen volumes, divided as follows: Vols. 1-3 Levant; 4 and 5 America; 6-8 India; 9-13 China; and 14 India and China. In vol. 2, a portrait of "Tamas Koulikan Roi de Perse," which follows p. 476, is sometimes found in two states, one being a suppressed plate. This plate has the engraver's name to the right of the picture; while in the substituted plate his name is on the left side. The printed instructions to the binder, which accompany the edition, show the number and location of fifty-one various plates.
