Paris Edition—1824-26

This edition, published at Paris in eight volumes, we have not seen. It purports to be a "Seconde édition," and vols. 6 and 7 relate to America.

Paris Edition—1829-32

This edition we have not examined. It is mentioned in the general preface of Aimé-Martin's edition (vol. i, 1838), and is there stated to belong to la Bibliothèque des Amis de la Religion. We take our title from Backer's Bibliothèque des écrivains de la Compagnie de Jésus:

"Lettres édifiantes et curieuses écrites par des Missionnaires de la Compagnie de Jésus; collationnées sur les meilleures éditions, et enrichies de nouvelles notes. Imprimerie de Béthune.

"A Paris, au Bureau, place Saint Sulpice, et chez Gaume frères, rue du Pot-de-fer Saint Sulpice, 1829-32." 40 vols, 18mo.

French (Aimé-Martin)—1838-43, etc.

Backer, in his Bibliothèque, has given over ten pages to an analysis of this edition—see his vol. ii. (1854), appendix, pp. 5-15. The general preface of vol. i. is signed "Ernest G.....," and gives a short
