

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DATA: VOL. LXVII

CLXXXVIII, CLXXXIX, CXCI

In our publication of these three documents, we follow apographs in the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal, where they are preserved in the cahier labeled "Quelques Lettres."

CLXXXVIII. gives the action of the council of the marine, taken April 1, 1716, relative to the condition of the Christian Indians in Canada.

CLXXXIX. is a synopsis of Father Lafitau's report "Sur la boisson [vendue] aux Sauvages," and of the action taken thereon by the council of marine, at Paris, October 30, 1718.

CXCI. is a decree of the royal council, made at Paris, May 12, 1722, concerning the Jesuit missionaries at Sault St. Louis.

CXC

This is an order of the royal council concerning the Jesuit establishment at Montreal, and is dated at Paris, March 16, 1720. We follow an apograph resting in the Dominion Archives (Department of Agriculture), at Ottawa, its press-mark being: "Correspondance Générale, Vol. 41, pp. 135-137."

CXCI

This document consists of two letters to Sébastien Rale—one by the intendant, Chevalier Begon, dated at Quebec, June 14, 1721; the other by the governor,
