

Marquis de Vaudreuil, also dated at Quebec, September 25 following. We follow contemporary copies preserved in the Public Record Office, London, the press-mark being: "New England X (16), Nos. 53, 54."

CXCII, CXV

For both of these documents we have had recourse to the original MSS. in the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal.

CXCII. is a letter written July 10, 1721 (n.p.), by Julien Garnier to Pierre de Lauzon, at Montreal.

CXCV. is Jean Baptiste Loyard's report "Sur l'État Présent des Abnaquis." It was probably written in 1722, but no place is given.

CXCIV, CXCVII-CXCIX

All of these are from tome vi. of Lettres édifiantes.

CXCIV. is a letter of Sébastien Rale to his nephew, and bears date at Nanrantsouak, October 15, 1722,—L. é., pp. 101-121.

CXCVII. is a letter by Rale to his brother, written from the same place, October 12, 1723,—L. é., pp. 122-179.

CXCVIII. is a letter dated at Quebec, October 29, 1724, written by Pierre Joseph de la Chasse to an unknown priest,—L. é., pp. 179-189.

CXCIX. is a letter addressed to Father Patouillet by Paul du Poisson, bearing internal evidence of having been written from the Arkansas country in 1726.

CXCVI

A letter written by Joseph Aubery to the Marquis
