

of which appears to be ever necessary. Done and ordered on the 30th of october, 1718.

L. A. DE BOURBON,

The Maréchal d'Estrées.

By the council;

LACHAPELLE.

Write to Messieurs de Vaudreuil and Bégon that they are to inform the council that, besides the licenses that had been granted, a great many other permissions have been given. Prohibit the giving of permits of that sort, under any pretext whatsoever. Give for another year the appointed number of licenses; after which announce that no more will be given.

The bearers of licenses shall notify the Savages of this, so that in the future the Savages may bring in their goods. In the permits to be given for this last time, forbid the taking of any brandy, even for the voyageurs' use.

[Endorsed: "30th of October, 1718.

"Letter of Governor Lovelace of New York, of the 18th of November, 1668.

"Father Lafitau, jesuit missionary of the Iroquois of Sault St. Louis."]