

quite unnecessary to station one there in time of peace, and the Council's Intention is that, in the event of one having been established there, Monsieur de Vaudreuil shall remove it, unless he deem it absolutely necessary; the Council leaves the matter to his discretion."

Done and ordered on the 12th of may, 1722.

L. A. DE BOURBON.

By the Council,

DELACHAPELLE.