

the most profound respect, in union with your Holy Sacrifices and Prayers,

My Reverend Father,

Your most humble and most obedient servant,

DEGONNOR, Jesuit,

Missionary of the Hurons
at Notre Dame de Laurette.

Convey, I beg you, the assurance of my great respect to all the Reverend Fathers of the seminary, and in particular to Father Bonin, Father Moreau, and Father Pillex, as I am told they are with you,—without forgetting Father Faure, if he be still there, as I am told. I also very humbly salute the Regents and other gentlemen of the house.
