

belongs, consented to allow the Hurons to settle, about the end of 1697.

11th. The Jesuits have been seigniors of the Seigniorie of St. Gabriel from the 2nd of November, 1667—on which day Monsieur Robert Giffard, the first seignior of the said seigniorie, in concert with Madame Renouard, his wife, gave it to the Reverend Jesuit Fathers.