

CONTINUATION OF THE BOOK OF ACCOUNTS, COMMENCING FROM FATHER DE LA RICHARDIE'S RETURN TO THE MISSION.

I owe parent, The joiner, 2 days' work.

Parent, of les Miamis, owes me 23 livres for a kettle. These things were done in my time.

I owe cuillerier for The bolting of [blank space in MS.] minots of flour.

I owe st. andré 20 sols for tacks.

Monsieur godefrois owes me 66 boards for roofing; Monsieur desruisseau, 55;¹ Father bon, 88.

On the 25th of august, 1747, I engaged One joseph L'esperance to serve me for 3 years at detroit, in consideration of 50 écus for wages, which I am to pay Him every year at the said Place, detroit.

I owe valet 30 livres, for 3 pots of portuguese wine.

I owe Monsieur cuillerier 100 livres, for a pirogue.

I owe parent, The joiner, 10 livres, for work.

I owe The elder L'esperance 50 livres, for indian corn.

I sold to sieur st. bernard, a soldier of this garrison, 400 livres' worth of liquor, which he is to pay me here, in detroit, in the month of may, 1748.

This day, the 15th of December, 1747, I sent to sieur rené de Couagne by sieur detailli, the interpreter at detroit, 7,200 porcelain beads, both black and white, to be sold in Montreal on account of what I owe him.

I owe sieur de Lille The sum of 27 livres 10 sols, for 81 livres of beef, which he sold to me, at 6 sols A livre, this 17th day of December, 1747.

In the spring of 1748, I shall owe 700 livres and 10 more to Niagara campeau and charlot st. aubin,² for a frame barn, with roof and casing of sawn