

also 50 livres, for a cask of wine; also 70 livres, for a cask of brandy.

I owe for a deerskin for Father potier's shoes. I gave the same 18 livres of Coffee to sell. *

I lent niagara a pair of mitasses. I became surety for him for 20 livres, for 10 cords of wood.

In addition to the above, I owe cuillerier for The bolting of 5 minots.

I became surety to Courtois for 111 livres 15 sols, which goscelin and his Comrades owe Him. I also became surety for The same for 65 livres, which they owe gibaud. I paid The said goscelin and his comrades in full.

Besides The 1st seeds that Niagara received from me, I added 6 minots of oats and 3 quarters of a minot of pease. *

I owe cuillerier for The bolting of 24 minots; in all for The bolting of 57 minots.

On this 20th of april, 1750, sieur pilet asked Father potier to say 30 masses for his deceased wife,¹³ whereof he is to pay for 15 only in the month of may, 1751. Father bon Asked me to say 20 for The same, payable in the same month and year.

For all The bolted flour, that is 59 minots: 12 livres less 4 sols.

On the 20th of may, 1750, I began to get 835 livres of flour baked — 24 livres in each baking.

I have finished paying gambille's wife. I gave her an order on sieur marsac for all The said marsac owed me,¹⁴ which amounted to The sum of 586 livres; of this gambille's Wife will pay on my account 400 livres to my creditors, after which his account with me will be settled.

Settlement of accounts with cuillerier: 58 livres,