

the said purchaser assumes conformably to the bond in the possession of the said Antaya; secondly, the sum of six hundred livres in paper currency of this post which the said Monforton counted and paid to him in the presence of Messrs. Réaume,⁵ Antaya and Guillar; thirdly, the sum of six hundred and eighty-one livres fifteen sols in accounts and bills which the said Monforton has paid for the said vendor, for which he now produces and delivers to him the receipts; fourthly, the sum of forty-five livres, which the said vendor declares to have received from the said Monforton in paper currency of this post; the said sums and bills as herein mentioned amounting together to the sum of nineteen hundred and eighty-four livres; which, with sixteen livres which the said purchaser now gives to the said vendor, makes the sum of two thousand livres for the payment of which he acquits the said purchaser, and by these presents gives him good and valid discharge.

IN CONSEQUENCE WHEREOF the said vendor has conveyed and does convey all and such rights of ownership, title, equity and demands which he has upon the said land, real or pretended, of which he stands possessed and of which he divests himself in favor of the said purchaser, for himself, his heirs and assigns, that he may use and dispose of the same as his own property, it being the will Catherine Bergeron, a native of Detroit. She was buried at Sandwich, March 19, 1798; he was buried there, Jan. 16, 1806. They left a large family of children. Denis-sen, op. cit.

5 René Réaume, born in the bishopric of La Rochelle in 1643, married Marie Chevreau, born in 1652. Their son, Pierre Réaume, born July 28, 1691, married Mary Teresa Estève dit Lajeunesse, a native of Quebec, in 1722, and settled at Detroit the same year. The wife died in the spring of 1730 and the husband in August, 1740. They left several children.

Another member of the family, who may have been a nephew of Pierre, was Hyacinthe Réaume, born at Lachine, March 25, 1704, who married at Montreal, Nov. 17, 1727, Agatha Lacelle, daughter of Jacques Lacelle and Angelica Gibaut. In 1733 the family came to Detroit, where Hyacinthe, who was a shoemaker, was buried, June 10, 1774, and Agatha, July 19, 1778. The individual here mentioned was their son, Jean Baptiste, who was born at Detroit, July 9, 1741, and married here, Dec. 20, 1763, Agatha Lootman dit Barrois. In 1774 they settled at Sandwich, and in 1792 at Raisin River settlement, where Agatha was buried Nov. 12, 1806, and Jean Baptiste, April 18, 1807. Jean Baptiste Réaume was engaged in the Indian trade. Concerning his rescue of James Moore from captivity, see Burton Hist. Coll. Leaflet, V, 76. A younger sister of Jean Baptiste was Marie Julie Réaume, who became the wife of Governor Jehu Hay of Detroit. A brother was Capt. Charles Réaume of the Indian Department, for whom see post, 249.
