

load & go as far as they were obliged to Walk & hawl them & wait for us instead of which they had gone past a point direct South & from thence the Course Westward to the Entrance of another small Lake was very angry for their obliging me to walk so far in following. Morras spilt a Quart of Corn & I protested to make them suffer for every thing mispent Camped.

Tuesday Ap^l 20th 1790 Snowed the whole Day & remained camped hulling Corn & C. Unloaded the Cannots at Night very stormy & a great fall of Snow.

Wednesday Ap^l 21st 1790 Snowed & rained all Night & to abo^t Eleven oClock & we loaded & set off. Discover'd that they had given on the Portage in my Absence about 4 lb powder & 2lb Tobacco. Went down the channel a current serpentine border'd by a small Lake on each Side Course to West & passed a Small Lake to South 'till about 1 oClock & came to a bluf point at the entrance of Another Lake on the North point at this place there entered another Run from North out of a Bay surrounded with pine & I went round to see its Course which came from due North a passable Current about 30 feet wide & both enter'd into this next Lake passed the Lake with a Current near the Middle a Course West & entered another & steered a Course still West leaving large Bays to the South at the West of this Lake found two Currents one the Smallest running North West into a pine Bay the other West by South & passing a high Ground of Oak to the South passed in this last nearly West to the Entrance of another Lake & [it] appearing to be a Stormy Night camped on a Small point to the South.

Thursday Ap^l 22^d 1790 A cold Night & a Morning threaten^s Snow we did not start early. Doubled the point & opposite to Nore West found a Run came in to that we were following which turned South & by Winding continued South & South West to Mid Day with a Grassy Lake on each Side at which Time we enter'd more into the Woods the Course West by Nore a strong Current & large Body of Water continued the same Rout nearly West & West by Nore the Wood very thick & many trees cut across to traverse
