

Surveyors, or others, whose business it may be to lay out or examine the lands, such Persons are bound and obliged to perform such Services upon being allowed a proper Compensation from the Company or Association, for so doing.

Article VIth

As Certain Tracts within the said Limits have been already Conceded by the Indians to John Askin, Jonathan Schieffelin and Their Associates, and of course the Indian Titles to such Tracts Extinguished, no steps they may have or shall hereafter take to obtain for such Tracts the Right and Claim of the United States in their behalf shall be deemed an Infringement of any thing herein containd. It is in the mean time however agreed, and understood, That for such Tracts as the Indians shall acknowledge to have divested themselves of, in favor of the said John Askin and Jonathan Schieffelin and Their Associates, the said Association of Forty-one, shall make them a fair and equitable compensation in proportion to the limits and extent so extinguished

The Parties at Detroit declare and They wish to be fully understood by all the World That as far as they are, or may be concerned in this business, they will on no account whatever be Instrumental in taking any advantage or any step that could deprive Their neighbours and friends the Indians, who in the eye of Nature and Reason, must ever be considered as the sole proprietors of these Lands, of any comfort or means of enjoyment they have heretofore possessed. That on the contrary, it is their Intention, at once to conciliate their affection and promote their Comfort, connecting with these the gradual & peaceable Settlement of the Territory in question. The extension of Trade and Agriculture, without Outrage, Bloodshed, or depredation on the part of the natives.

Article VIIth

If the said Allen, Whitney & Randall and Their Associates, shall not have obtained the pre-emption Right from the United States in three Months after the expiration of the second Session of Congress, counting from the day of the date hereof, then this Agreement to be Null and void.
