

In the presence of
Toussaint Chêne by mark²⁰
Bte. Sanscraint, Interpreter
F. D^x Bellecour, Notary Public

Endorsed: Grant by the Ottawa Indians to Gabriel Hunot,
January 19, 1796.

Received in my office, October 4, 1797 Peter Audrain.²¹

Registered in my office in the Book No. 1, pages 158 and 159. Peter Audrain, Recorder.

Sworn before us, Joseph Voyez²² Esq. F. D^x. Bellecour, Notary Public.

No. 1 to be delivered to Mr. Askin.

JOHN ASKWITH'S TAILOR BILL

The Estate of John Askwith²³ Deceased
To Thomas McCrae D^r²⁴

1793

July	19 th	To Turning a Black Coat & trimmings	£	1	16
1794
Jan ^y	11	" Making 2 p ^r Mittens	2/6		5
June	28	" ditto 2 Vests & 2 p ^r Breeches
		@ 12/ ea	2	8
		" 1 Yard Shalloon 6/ 13 ¹ / ₄ yd ^s
		Cotton Linning @ 6/		16	6
		" 3 " Linnen @ 4/6 Silk
		twist thread & tape 10/6	1	4
		" 3 doz blk Buttons @ 2/ 2 ² / ₃
		doz Small plated @ 4/		17

²⁰ For the background of the Chêne family, see ibid., 410. Toussaint was a son of Charles Chêne dit Caousa and Mary Joseph Descomps dit Labadie. He was born in Detroit, Oct. 31, 1768, and married, April 23, 1798, Mary Therese Campau, daughter of Jean Baptiste Campau and Geneveva Godet. She was buried, June 23, 1823, and Toussaint married (second), April 21, 1833, Mary Frances Paré, daughter of Jean Baptiste Paré and Mary Frances Peltier and widow of Antoine Levasseur dit Carmel. Toussaint was buried in Detroit, May 2, 1834. Eleven children were born of the union with Mary Therese Campau, in the years 1799-1821. Information adapted from Denissen, op. cit.

²¹ For sketch of the career of Peter Audrain, see B. H. R., I, 213.

²² Joseph Voyer, for whose career see ibid., 379.

²³ John Askwith, for whose career see ibid., 448-49, and Burton Hist. Coll. Leaflet, VII, 49-64.

²⁴ For data concerning the family of Thomas McCrae, see post, 386.