

PROPOSAL FOR SUPPLYING LOGGERS

Grose Point Thursday

D^r Sir For fear of any misunderstanding about the price of the Hay which I had cut & stacked near where your People are cutting Pine, I inform you that if you have occasion to take any of it the Price is Twelve Pounds York.

I take this opportunity also to repeat that I will haul out all your Timber at Two Shillings York a pice provided the saw Logs do not exceed ten feet long, otherwise in that proportion, and the largest of the other Timber thirty feet of a foot square except the [illegible] & Traverses which of cours[e] I'll admit in any proportion you find convenient to order, provided also that your people do open the roads to the Timber.

I shall require half of the payment in money and half in goods from your Store. Should this not meet with your approbation, and that your People may want any supplies, these can be had at my House, Corn for 8/ a Minot Pork at 1/ Beef at 10^d and if possible to get to the mill Flour at 40/ a h^d. When I consider that I may have two Horses to support and two Men to victuall and pay for at least three Months I cannot undertake the hauling under the terms proposed Mean time I am D^r Sir
