

TUITION BILL OF REV. DAVID BACON

John Askin Esq<sup>r</sup>To David Bacon D<sup>r</sup>

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| For instructing his son Alex <sup>r</sup> from the first of June to the 25 th of Aug <sup>t</sup> one third of the time in writing at 12/ per month, the other in arithmetic at 14/ per month. . . . . | £1 " 16 " 6 |
| For instructing Alex <sup>r</sup> Grant <sup>78</sup> the above mentioned time in writing. . . . .                                                                                                                | 1 " 13 " 0  |
| For instructing his son Charles & James, a half a month each, in english grammer & geography, at 16/ per month. . . . .                                                                                           | 0 " 16 " 0  |
| For instructing John Richardson in reading from the 17 th of July to the 25 th Aug <sup>t</sup> at 10/ per month                                                                            | 0 " 12 " 6  |
| For instructing his daughter Elenor in reading, writing & sewing, from the first of June to the 25 th of August at 12/ per month. . . . .                                                              | 1 " 13 " 0  |
| For finding ink & quills for three of the above, at 6/10 each. . . . .                                                                                                                                            | 1 " 0 " 6   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | <hr/>       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | £7 11 " 6   |

Rec<sup>d</sup> payment in full for the above August 29th 1801

David Bacon

Contents en<sup>d</sup> the 30th Aug<sup>t</sup> 1801

Endorsed: M<sup>r</sup> Bacon's bill for schooling August 1801
(paid as per receipt affixed)

MISCONDUCT OF INDIAN SLAVE

Sandwich 14 Sept<sup>r</sup> 1801

Dear Sir M<sup>r</sup> Barths Pawney Man has been brought before M<sup>r</sup> Francois Baby for having Assaulted and Beat J. B.

<sup>78</sup> Alexander Grant, only son of the Commodore, was born in Detroit, March 19, 1791. In the summer of 1802 Simon McTavish of Montreal offered to "take care of his education and future prospects in life," if the Commodore would send him down to Montreal for this purpose. See post, 389 for the date of his departure from Detroit. McTavish died in July, 1804, but a legacy of £1000 to the boy made provision for the fulfillment of his promise. On completing his education, Grant entered the army, and at the age of nineteen was commissioned lieutenant in the Canadian Fencibles, then stationed at Quebec. He later at-