BEFORE François Desruisseaux Bellecour, notary at Detroit and there resident, witness undersigned, appeared Gabriel Hunot, merchant trader, now in this city who acknowledges by these presents to have sold, ceded, released, conveyed, and relinquished from this time and forever, with guaranty from his own acts and those of his heirs and assigns, also from all debts, mortgages, evictions, and alienations whatsoever, to John Askin, Esq., here present and accepting as purchaser, for himself, his heirs and future assigns, the one-half of all the land that he has acquired from the Indians on the south of Lake Erie near Sandusky, according as they are described in the deeds which the said Indians have given to him, one dated the eighteenth of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and the other dated the nineteenth of January of this current year, executed by the notary undersigned, such and as the said lands extend and are on all sides, that the gentleman purchasing says he is satisfied.

This sale, cession, conveyance, and relinquishment thus made is for and because of the sum of one thousand pounds, New York currency, which the said Gabriel Hunot acknowledges to have received from the said Mr. Askin before the execution of these presents, with which he is satisfied and for the payment of which he holds the said purchaser and all others acquitted and absolved, and because of this, the said Gabriel Hunot has from this time conveyed, and
