

provided M^r M^oIntoshe's leave can be Obtained for the same Burbank ought to have his leave before he goes to Fort Erie so that he might ship them en passant, returng from F. Erie its probable he or Fearson would bring up the Yew & lamb which Johnney left behind. As I can not write Richardson owing to Burbanks short stay, if you see him tell him & William Duff that I expect they will send me all my things. I have no working Horse, Chairs to sit, Bedsteads, Cart Wheels, Flour, Hogs, slays or Carriole tho my store House is furnished with all those things I really wish that my Blk mare may be sent in preferance to the Pacing Horse she will be of service to me in Hawling Wood & answer extreamely well as a breeding Mare. Madelaine informs me that she Can not write by this Vessel to her Mother as Burbank is in waiting, but will be fully prepared for the next & at the same time send Pine & spruce plants, likewise sand Cherry plants. I have not heard from James since my departure I hope he is well employed which will make up any neglect or difficiency in Corresponding Madelaine & the Children join me in fervent prayers for Your & my dear Mother's hea[l]th (Our Love to my Brothers Sisters & Relations & Respects to all Acquaintancees) in Haste I remain My Dear Father

Your dutiful Son
