Pierre Charlefou, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, the deponent, commenced clearing said farm in the spring of one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four; that the next season he built a house upon the same, and continued until one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, when Louis Grignon came into possession of the improvements, and has continued there until the present time, and continually occupied and improved the farm.

Likewise, Louis Dequire, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the aforesaid described land, claimed by Louis Grignon, was first occupied by Pierre Charlefou, but does not recollect how many years since, but thinks it was twenty-six or seven years ago; that he, this deponent, has lived at Green Bay ever since Pierre Charlefou settled on the aforesaid land, and knows that it has been continually occupied to the present time by said Charlefou and Grignon.
