

has been continually occupied, by fencing and cultivating the same to the present time, by said Jean Bt. Brunet, by this deponent and the above-named Pierre Grignon, to whom this deponent sold in one thousand eight hundred and six, according to the deed this day presented.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY.

Jean Bt. Brunet, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that lot number four, on the west side of Fox river, claimed by Pierre Grignon, was owned and occupied by this deponent forty-three years ago; that he continued to occupy the same until he gave it to his daughter, who, with her husband, sold to Pierre Grignon; that the front of said tract has been continually occupied by the aforesaid persons for forty-three years last past.

Farm lot No. 5, west.—John Lawe.

Entry of land made this fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Lawe, which is described as follows: it being lot number five, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Pierre Grignon, on the south by other lands claimed by said Lawe, and is five chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land; it being the farm purchased from Amable Norman.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually cultivated for forty-five years last past; that John Lawe has been several years in possession, and, to the best of his knowledge, is the just claimant.

Farm lot No. 6, west.—John Lawe.

Entry of land made this fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Lawe, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number six, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by other lands claimed by said John Lawe, on the south by lands claimed by Jaques Porlier, and is four chains and twenty-three links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied forty-five years ago; that the occupation has been continually kept up to the present time; that, to the best of his knowledge, John Lawe is the legal claimant.

Farm lot No. 7, west.—Jaques Porlier.

Entry of land made this fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jaques Porlier, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number seven, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by John Lawe, on the south by other land claimed by said Porlier, and is four chains twenty-three links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, settled on the above-described tract of land forty-five years ago, and, to his certain knowledge, the occupation has been kept up to the present time; that the above-named Jaques Porlier has resided on the same these sixteen years last past, and is the just claimant.

Farm lot No. 8, west.—Jaques Porlier.

Entry of land made this fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jaques Porlier, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number eight, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by other lands claimed by said Porlier, and on the south by lands claimed by Catharine Mackibee, and is four chains seventy-seven links in width, and extends from Fox river on the east far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, occupied the above-described tract of land forty-five years ago; that the occupation of said land has been continually kept up to the present time; that three years last past, Jaques Porlier purchased the same from Alexander Guardapee, and is now in possession of the same.

Farm lot No. 9, west.—Cadish, alias Catharine Mackibee.

Entry of land made this fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Catharine Mackibee, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number nine, on the west side of Fox