

river; bounded on the north by land claimed by Jaques Porlier, on the south by land claimed by Dominique Brunet, and is ten chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that about forty-two years ago a Canadian blacksmith occupied the above-described tract of land; that the occupation has been kept up to the present time; that the second claimant was Charles Longlade, the third François Boyont, who sold to Lambert Mackibee, deceased, who left seven half-breed children, of whom the above-named claimant is one.

Farm lot No. 10, west.—Dominique Brunette.

Entry of land made this fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Dominique Brunette, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number ten, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Catharine Mackibee, on the south by land claimed by Margaret Grignon, and is eleven chains eighteen links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

John Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied forty years ago; that the occupation has been continually kept up to the present time; that, to the best of this deponent's knowledge, the above-named Dominique Brunette is the just claimant.

Farm lot No. 11, west.—Margarette Grignon.

Entry of land made this fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Margarette Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number eleven, on the west side of Fox river, bounded, viz: on the north by land claimed by Dominique Brunette, on the south by land claimed by Paul Grignon, and is nine chains forty-six links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied about thirty-seven years ago; that the occupation has been continued to the present time; that, to the best of this deponent's knowledge, the above-named Margarette Grignon is the just claimant.

Farm lot No. 12, west.—Paul Grignon.

Entry of land made this fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Paul Grignon, which is described as follows: it being lot number twelve, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Margaret Grignon, on the south by land claimed by John Lawe, and is twelve chains thirty-four links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied for about thirty-six years last past; that, to the best of his knowledge, the above-named Paul Grignon is the just claimant.

Farm lot No. 13, west.—John Lawe.

Entry of land made this sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Lawe, which is described as follows: it being lot number thirteen, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Margaret Grignon, on the south by land claimed by James Veau, and is seventeen chains and twenty-one links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Louis Dequire, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that twenty-six years ago Charles Longlade ploughed and sowed the above-described tract of land, who sold to Bartolome Janness, who sold to Antoine Guillory, who sold to Louis Graville; that said farm has been continually occupied for the last twenty-six years, and was built upon soon after cultivation.

Farm lot No. 14, west.—Jaques Veau.

Entry of land made this sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jaques Veau, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number fourteen, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by John Lawe, on the south by land claimed by Alexander Guardapee, and is six chains twenty-nine links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, purchased the above-described farm twenty-six years ago from Amable Larose, and gave the same to his son, who sold the same to