

TESTIMONY.

Peter Ulrich, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied by Charles Reaume in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four; that he resided on said tract, and continued to cultivate the same until he sold to Colonel John Bowyer, who resided on the same until his death, in one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Farm lot No. 20, west.—Peter Ulrich.

Entry of land made this seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Peter Ulrich, which is described as follows, viz: being lot number twenty, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by the heirs of Colonel John Bowyer, on the south by land claimed by John Lawe, and is twenty-one chains and seventeen links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jaques Cousie, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that twenty-five years ago he, this deponent, lived with the above-named claimant on the above-described premises, and continued to reside there for ten years; that said Peter Ulrich has continued to reside there, and has cultivated the same to the present day, and had resided there previous to said term of twenty years.

Farm lot No. 21, west.—John Lawe.

Entry of land made this seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Lawe, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-one, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Peter Ulrich, on the south by land claimed by Jean Bt. Jeanvine, and is eight chains sixty-eight links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jaques Cousie, after being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied for the last twenty-five years, it being the time he has resided in the country.

Farm lot No. 22, west.—Jean Bt. Jeanvine.

Entry of land made this twenty-first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jean Bt. Jeanvine, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-two on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Richard Pricket, and is six chains twenty-three links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Peter Ulrich, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied for about twenty-three years last past; that, to the best of his knowledge, the above-named Jean Bt. Jeanvine is the just claimant.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY.

Jaques Cousie, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that lot number twenty-two, claimed by Jean Bt. Jeanvine, has been continually occupied for this last twenty-five years; and, to the best of his knowledge, said Jeanvine is the legal claimant.

Farm lot No. 23, west.—Richard Pricket.

Entry of land made this twenty-first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Richard Pricket, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-three, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by John Bt. Jeanvine, on the south by land claimed by John Dousman, and is seventeen chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jaques Cousie, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied for the last twenty-five years; and, to the best of his knowledge, said Pricket is the just claimant.
