

TESTIMONY.

François St. La Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that about eighteen years ago he, this deponent, purchased the above-described tract of land, together with four tracts of land next above, from an Indian chief, and sold out the same in the course of the same year; that this, as well as the others, has been continually occupied from that time to the present.

Farm lot No. 22, east.—Louis Bourdon.

Entry of land made this ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Louis Bourdon, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 22, bounded on the north by land claimed by Jaques Porlier, on the south by land claimed by Moses Hardwick, and is eight chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the west, easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

François St. La Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been occupied a little more than seventeen years; he has always seen some one in possession of it; and that it is at present the property of the above-named Louis Bourdon.

*

Farm lot No. 23, east.—Moses Hardwick.

Entry of land made this ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Moses Hardwick, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 23, on the east side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Louis Bourdon, on the south by land claimed by Jean Bt. Brunette, and is four chains and fifty links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the west, easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

François St. La Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that this is the eighteenth year since the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied, and that the above-named Moses Hardwick is the present owner, to the best of his knowledge.

Farm lot No. 24, east.—Jean Bt. Brunette.

Entry of land made this ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jean Bt. Brunette, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 24, on the east side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Moses Hardwick, on the south by land claimed by Bazil Laroche, and is eleven chains and fifty links in width, and extends from Fox river, on the west, easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

François St. La Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land has been continually occupied for about seventeen years, and that the above-named Jean Bt. Brunette is the legal owner.

Farm lot No. 25, east.—Bazil Laroche.

Entry of land made this ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Bazil Laroche, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 25, on the east side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Jean Bt. Brunette, on the south by land claimed by John Dousman, and is twenty chains and fifty links in width, and extending from Fox river, on the west, easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

François St. La Roi, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, was the first white man that occupied the above-described tract of land; that this is the eighteenth year since the occupation was commenced; that the occupation has been continued to the present time; that said possession has been owned by five or six Canadians, and at present is the property of the above-named Bazil Laroche.

Farm lot No. 26, east.—John Dousman.

Entry of land made this ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Dousman, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 26, on the east side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Bazil Laroche, on the south by land claimed by Pierre Carboneau, sen., and is eight chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the west, easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jean Bt. Grignon, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied fifteen years ago by Jean Bt. Bertrand, who remained one year, and sold the same to John Dousman, who cultivated the same two years, since which time it has been abandoned, except by cutting hay.