

Farm lot No. 39.—Joseph Jourdin.

Entry of land made this twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Joseph Jourdin, which is described as follows, viz: it being a part of lot No. 5, on the east side of Fox river, claimed by Pierre Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: commencing at a stake on the east border of Fox river, on the line between this tract and tract No. 4, claimed by Augustus Grignon; from thence easterly, in said line, one arpent and one-half from the east side of the highway; from thence, turning at right angles, southerly, one arpent; from thence, turning at right angles, westward, to said Fox river; from thence to the place of beginning.

Farm lot No. 40, east.—Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen.

Entry of land made this eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen., which is described as follows, viz: situated on the river called the river Au Diable, nearly opposite the land claimed by Amable Durocher, and is three arpents in front on said river, and extends eastward far enough to contain one section of land, bounded on the northeast and south by unlocated lands; it being the improvement made by Jean Bpt. Longvine, jun.

TESTIMONY.

Jean Bpt. Longvine, jun, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, has fenced and cultivated the front of the above-described premises for three years last past; that it is at present the property of the above-named claimant, who is the father of this deponent.

Farm lot No. 41, east.—Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen.

Entry of land made this twenty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen., which is described as follows, viz: situated on the east side of river Au Diable, nearly opposite the claim of Jean Bpt. Labord, jun., on Fox river, and is nine arpents in width, bounded on the west by said river Au Diable, on all other parts by unlocated lands, and extends easterly far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

George Fortier, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-named claimant cultivated a part of the above-described premises fifteen years ago; that he continued the cultivation for three years.

Farm lot No. 1, west.—Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen.

Entry of land made this twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Jean Bpt. Longvine, sen., which is described as follows, viz: it being lot No. 1, on the west side of Fox river, claimed by Jaques Porlier, and is twelve arpents in width on Fox river, and extends westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Louis Graville, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the Longlade Grignon and Longvine Januhis have cut hay on the front part of the above-described tract for forty years last past, or until Colonel Smith prevented them; that he had no knowledge of the above-named claimants having any other right claim to said tract than having married the widow of Grignon.

Farm lot No. 20, west.—Pierre Grignon.

Entry of land made this ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Pierre Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: it being situated on the west side of Fox river, and is a part of lot number nineteen, claimed by the heirs of Colonel John Boyer, deceased, and number twenty, claimed by Peter Ulrich, commencing at an old lime-kiln, &c., of the tract claimed by Colonel John Boyer, and extending up stream on said Fox river twenty-eight rods, which includes or crosses the mouth of the river Au Lalais, and extending up said last-mentioned river the same width as in front, forty acres.

TESTIMONY.

Charles Reaume, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, cleared out the creek above mentioned twenty-eight years ago, and navigated the same with canoes and rafts; that ten years ago Pierre Grignon commenced building mills on this creek, with this deponent's consent; that said mills have continued to do business ever since; that this deponent has no knowledge that Peter Ulrich had any claim to said tract at the time the mills were built.

Entry of George Johnson of a tract comprehending Nos. 2 and 3.

DETROIT, August 17, 1821.

Sir: Please to take notice that we now enter the following described tract of land for confirmation, by virtue of a deed from George Johnson, a copy of which is herewith enclosed, the original being filed in the office of the commissioners at Detroit; said tract is described as follows, viz: said tract or lot of land lying and being in the village of Green Bay, bounded in front by Fox river, on the northeast by lands occupied by the United States troops, on the southwest by a lot of land owned and occupied by Pierre Grignon, and in rear by unconceded lands; being six acres in front by one hundred acres in depth, equal to six hundred acres of land, more or less; to which tract we pray a confirmation, and request that the
