

did not extend further down the river than the elm tree now standing before Johnson's present dwelling-house; that he sold this part of his former tract principally to cut hay.

NOTE.—The above tract, designated by numbers two and three, was confirmed to Louis Grignon and the children of Pierre Grignon, deceased, the claim of George Johnson being disallowed by the commissioners. See testimony subjoined to entries Nos. 2 and 3, west, pages —.

Farm lot No. 24, west.—John Dousman.

Entry of land made this seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Dousman, which is described as follows, viz: it being thirteen chains in width, and extends from Fox river, on the east, westward far enough to contain one section of land, bounded on the north by land claimed by Richard Pricket, on the south by Chewabina creek, or by a line running west from the mouth of said creek, it being lot number twenty-four, on the west side of Fox river.

TESTIMONY.

Peter Ulrich, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract of land was occupied sixteen years ago; that the occupation was continued for four years; that it was, in one thousand eight hundred and twelve, occupied, and was the property of John Dousman, but has not been occupied since.

Farm lot No. 25, west.—Therese Rankins.

Entry of land made this twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Therese Rankins, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-five, on the west side of Fox river, commencing at the mouth of Chewabina creek, bounded on the south by land claimed by Therese Larose, and is forty-seven chains in width, and extends westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jaques Cousie, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-described tract, number twenty-five, and lots numbers twenty-six and twenty-seven, were formerly claimed by an Indian named Shawabinay; that at his death said land was given to Therese Rankins, Therese Larose, and Susan Larose, who are of the half-breed and nearly related to the aforesaid Shawabinay.

Farm lot No. 26, west.—Therese Larose.

Entry of land made this twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Therese Larose, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-six, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Therese Rankin, on the south by land claimed by Susan Larose, and is forty-seven chains in width on the Fox river, and extends westward far enough to contain one section of land.

[See testimony to lot number twenty-five, on the west side of Fox river, claimed by Therese Rankins.]

Farm lot No. 27, west.—Susan Larose.

Entry of land made this twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Susan Larose, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-seven, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Therese Larose, on the south by land claimed by Parish Grignon, and is forty-seven chains in width on the Fox river, and extends westward far enough to contain one section of land.

[See testimony to lot number twenty-four, on the west side of Fox river, claimed by Therese Rankins.]

Farm lot No. 28, west.—Parish Grignon.

Entry of land made this twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Parish Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-eight, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Susan Larose, and extends along the border of said Fox river, up stream, to a marked tract which stands a little below the old mill-dam, the front of said tract being very irregular. The width is not known, but supposed to be five acres, and extending westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Jean Bt. Bradan, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that the above-named Parish Grignon has continually occupied the above-described premises for fourteen or fifteen years last past.

Farm lot No. 29, west.—John Lawe.

Entry of land made this twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by John Lawe, which is described as follows, viz: it being lot number twenty-nine, situated at the rapids of the Reverend Father, on the west side of Fox river, bounded on the north by land claimed by Parish Grignon, on the east by Fox river, on the south by unlocated lands, and is twelve chains in width, and extends westward far enough to contain one section of land. No testimony.
