

Claims at the Kakalin.—Farm No. 1.—Paul Ducharme.

Entry of land made this first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Paul Ducharme, which is described as follows, viz: beginning on the border of Fox river, at the point of the hill at the upper end of the prairie, at the Grand Kakalin, or the Great Rapids of Fox river, from thence down stream on the border of said river to the land sold by the above-named claimant to Augustus Grignon, supposed to be about three-fourths of a mile, and extending westward far enough to contain one section of land, bounded on the north by land claimed or belonging to Augustus Grignon, on the east by Fox river, and on the south and west by unlocated land.

TESTIMONY.

Jaques Porlier, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five Dominique Ducharme, brother to the above-named Paul Ducharme, had a house and field on the above-described premises; that the same man had a log-house and resided there two or three years previous to that time; that it was continually occupied until the late war, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, by the above-named Dominique and Paul Ducharme.

Farm No. 2, west.—Augustus Grignon.

Entry of land made this eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Augustus Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: situated at the rapids on Fox river, called the Grand Kakalin, commencing on the border of said river, on the line between this tract and a tract claimed by Paul Ducharme, from thence along the border of said river, down stream, four arpents to the lower tract claimed by Paul Ducharme, and extending westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Jourdin, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen he, this deponent, acted as attorney for Paul Ducharme, and sold four arpents in width, it being the above-described premises, to Augustus Grignon; that no rear line was mentioned in said contract; that he does not know the exact boundary, only that the present buildings of said Grignon are upon the tract; that he has continued the occupation by building and cultivating small pieces of said land to the present day.

Farm No. 3.—Paul Ducharme.

Entry of land made this first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Paul Ducharme, which is described as follows, viz: situated at the Grand Kakalin, or Great Rapids, on Fox river, beginning on the border of the river, at the point of the hill at the one end of the prairie, and extending up said river to the land which the above-named claimant sold to Augustus Grignon, supposed to be about one-half of a mile, and extending westward far enough to contain one section of land, bounded on the south by land claimed by Augustus Grignon, on the east by Fox river, and on the north and west by unlocated lands.

TESTIMONY.

John Lawe, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he has often passed the portage at the above-named Grand Kakalin for the last twenty-two years; that, to his knowledge, the same place of embarking and debarking goods to cross said portage has been at the lower part of the above-described tract, but has no knowledge of its having been cultivated otherwise than as a portage and cutting hay; that it has been continually occupied as a portage since his arrival in the country twenty-two years ago.

Claims of the Kakalin not confirmed.—Farm No. 1.—Pierre Grignon.

Entry of land made this eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Pierre Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: situated at the rapids on the Fox river, called the Grand Kakalin, beginning on the border of said river, at the upper part of the present mill-dam, and extending from thence down stream on said river to the land claimed by Augustus Grignon, extending westward far enough to contain one section of land.

TESTIMONY.

Pierre Charlefou, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that thirteen years ago this deponent worked for the above-named claimant, and fenced and cultivated a part of the above-described premises; that he continued to cultivate the same by Indians, who planted small pieces until the commencement of the late war, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve; that last year said Grignon commenced building mills on the same tract.

Farm No. 3.—Augustus Grignon.

Entry of land made this eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, by Augustus Grignon, which is described as follows, viz: situated at the Grand Kakalin, or Great Rapids, on Fox river, commencing on the border of said river, on the line between this tract and the other tract claimed by the said Augustus Grignon; from thence along the border of said river, down stream, sixty-six rods, and extending westward far enough to contain one section of land.

N. B.—The same place is claimed by Paul Ducharme.
