

who sold to Jean Marie Cardinal, who sold to Stephen Hempstead, who sold to Joseph Rolette, who sold to James Aird, deceased; that the above-described tract of land, called the Grand farm, has been continually occupied by the aforesaid persons from one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one to the present time.

Farm lot No. 2.—Charles Menard, for Mariame Labuche Menard, his wife.

Entry of land made this eleventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, by Charles Menard, which is described as follows, viz: it being farm lot number two, bounded on the north by Fisher's creek, on the south by the present highway, on the west by the marais leading to the Mississippi, on the east by the present highway leading across Fisher's creek.

TESTIMONY.

Dennis Courtois and Pierre Lariviere, being duly sworn, depose and say that the above-described tract of land was first occupied in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two by Claude Gagnier, who sold the same to Mariame Labuche, now the wife of said Charles Menard; that the occupation has been continually kept up to the present time. October 11, 1820.

Farm lot No. 3.—Joseph Rolette, in behalf of Jean F. Rolette.

Entry of land made by Jean Rolette, now the wife of Joseph Rolette, it being farm lot number three, this tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, which is described as follows, viz: bounded in front by the public road where it crosses Fisher's creek, in the Prairie des Chiens, in the county of Crawford, in the Territory of Michigan. It is supposed to be three arpents in front, extending from one side of the top of the ravine to the other, and extending two hundred acres up said ravine or creek, bounded on each side by the bluffs of said creek.

TESTIMONY.

Michael Brisbois, Antoine Brisbois, and Marie Souligne, all of said county, being duly sworn, depose and say that the above-described tract of land was occupied by Jean Bt. Cardinal thirty-two years ago, who sold the same to Henry Monroe Fisher, who sold the same, by deed, to Jean Fisher, now the wife of Joseph Rolette; and that said land has been occupied by the aforesaid persons during the whole term of thirty-two years.

Farm lot No. 4.—Joseph Rolette.

Entry of land made by Joseph Rolette this tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, it being farm lot number four, and described as follows: being five and one-third arpents in width, and extending from the bluffs to the river Mississippi, bounded on the north by the public highway, on the south by land claimed by Felix Mercier.

TESTIMONY.

Michael Brisbois, Antoine Brisbois, and Marie Souligne, all of said county, after being duly sworn, depose and say that the above-described tract of land was occupied thirty years ago by Pierre Antya, and sold at auction to Nicholas Boilvin, who transferred it to Pierre Lariviere, who sold the same to Jean Bt. Ferrebeaux, who sold the same to Joseph Rolette, by deed dated the twenty-seventh of September, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and that said tract of land has been occupied by the aforesaid persons every year during the aforesaid term of thirty years.

Farm lot No. 5.—The heirs of Felix Mercier.

Entry of land made this eleventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, by the heirs of Felix Mercier, which is described as follows, viz: it being farm lot number five, situated in the Prairie des Chiens, it being five and one-third arpents in width, bounded on the north by land claimed by Joseph Rolette, on the south by land claimed by Jean Fisher, extending from the bluffs to the marais leading to the Mississippi.

TESTIMONY.

Joseph Cr    , being duly sworn, deposeth and saith that he, this deponent, occupied the above-described tract of land twenty-nine years ago; that he sold the same to John Marie Cardinal, who, some years after, sold it back to this deponent, who transferred the same to Felix Mercier; that the occupation has been continually kept up to the present time.

Farm lot No. 6.—Jean Fisher Rolette.

Entry of land made by Jean Fisher, now the wife of Joseph Rolette, made the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, it being farm lot number six, which is described as follows, viz: being five arpents in width, extending from the bluff to the river Mississippi, bounded on the north by land claimed by the heirs of Felix Mercier, on the south by land claimed by Magdeline Gauthier.

TESTIMONY.

Michael Brisbois, Antoine Brisbois, and Marie Souligne, being duly sworn, depose and say that the above-described tract of land was occupied thirty years ago by Jean Bt. Cardinal, who sold to Henry Monroe Fisher, who deeded said tract to Jean Fisher, now the wife of Joseph Rolette; that said tract of land has been continually occupied by said persons for thirty years past.