DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On examination of the preceding claim of Therese Larose, the commissioners decide that the same be confirmed; not to embrace more than 640 acres.

Entry for land.

I, Louis Grignon, of the township of Green Bay, in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby enter my claim to a certain farm or piece of land situated in said township of Green Bay, and bounded as follows: commencing on the west bank of Devil river, at an elm tree, opposite a creek, on the second fork of said river; thence running down said river twenty-six arpents in a northwesterly direction; thence southwest twenty-five arpents; thence southeast twenty-six arpents; thence northeast twenty-five arpents to the place of beginning.

As witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 16th day of September, 1823.

L. GRIGNON.

In presence of—

AMOS HOLTON.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

John Bt. Brunet and Joseph Roy, of the township of Green Bay and Territory aforesaid, being duly sworn, depose and say that they were well acquainted with Amable Roy, of the aforesaid township; that the said Roy occupied and cultivated a certain farm or piece of land situated in the said township, and bounded and described as follows, viz: commencing on the west bank of the Devil river, at an elm tree, opposite a creek, on the second fork of said river; thence running down said river twenty-six arpents in a northwestwardly direction; thence southwest twenty-five arpents; thence southeast twenty-six arpents; thence northeast twenty-five arpents, to the place of beginning, for a number of years; that about seventeen years ago the said Amable Roy died; that previous to his death he verbally bequeathed all this right, title, and interest in and to the said farm or piece of land to Louis Grignon, of the said township of Green Bay; that on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twelve, the said Louis Grignon occupied and cultivated the same; and from that time the said Louis Grignon continued to submit to the authority of the United States until the following autumn, when this district of country was conquered and taken possession of by Great Britain, then at war with our nation, when he, the said Louis Grignon, and its other inhabitants were compelled to yield to the tyranny and caprice of the ruling power
