DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On consideration of the preceding claim of Louis Grignon, the commissioners decide that the same be confirmed, provided that the same does not contain more than six hundred and forty acres, and that the lines be so run as not to conflict with any confirmations heretofore made, or by this board made.

Entry of land.

I, Louis Beaupre, do hereby enter my claim to a certain farm or piece of land situated in the township of Green Bay, in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, and bounded as follows, viz: commencing on the east side of Fox river, at low-water mark, being nine chains in breadth, more or less, and running east eighty arpents; bounded on the north by land claimed by Michael Dousman, on the south by land claimed by Amable Daroshey, being marked No. 13 in the sketch of private claims for lands, as exhibited to the commissioners at Detroit in 1821.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 17th day of September, 1823.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

John Bt. Longvin, senior, and Augustin Grignon, of the township of Green Bay, county and Territory aforesaid, being duly sworn, depose and say that they are well acquainted with Louis Beaupre, of the said township of Green bay; that he has occupied and cultivated a farm or piece of land situated in the township of Green Bay, and bounded as follows, viz: commencing on the east bank of Fox river at low-water mark, being nine chains in breadth, more or less, and running east eighty arpents; bounded on the north by land claimed by Michael Dousman, on the south by land claimed by Amable Daroushey; that on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, he occupied and cultivated the said farm or piece of land, from which time he continued to submit to the authority of the United States until the said following autumn, when this district of country was conquered and taken possession of by Great Britain, then at war with our nation, when he, the said Louis Beaupre, and its other inhabitants were compelled to yield to the tyranny and caprice of the ruling power and its savage allies, the protection of our government being entirely withdrawn therefrom; that when that protection was returned to them he, the said Louis Beaupre, voluntarily resumed the relation of citizen of the United States, and has continued to submit to its authority ever since.

JOHN BT. LONGVIN, SEN.
AUGUSTIN GRIGNON.

The foregoing affidavit subscribed and sworn to before me, at Green Bay aforesaid, this 17th day of September, 1823.

J. G. PORLIER, Justice of the Peace.
