DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

In the preceding case of Francis Laventure, the commissioners decide that the claim be confirmed, provided that in this, as in all other cases, the tract does not contain more than 640 acres, or conflict with any confirmations heretofore made.

Claim of John B. Brunett.

I, John B. Brunett, do hereby enter my claim to a certain farm or piece of land situated in the township of Green Bay, in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, and bounded as follows, viz: commencing on the east side of Fox river at low-water mark, being eleven chains in breadth, more or less, and running east eighty arpents; bounded on the north by land claimed by Moses Hardwick, and on the south by land claimed by Bazil La Rock, being marked No. 24 in the sketch of private claims for lands, as exhibited to the commissioners at Detroit, in 1821.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 16th day of September, 1823.
