

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

Be it remembered that on the 17th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace within and for the county aforesaid, personally came and appeared Eustice La Bœuff, who, being sworn in due form, deposeth and saith that he has personal knowledge of Dominick Brunett's having cultivated a certain tract of land as a meadow, situated in the township of Green Bay, bounded on the west side by Fox river, on the north side by wild lands, and on the east side by uncultivated lands, and on the south side by a lot claimed by me, being in breadth on said river about two and a half arpents, and extending back about half an arpent—from the year eighteen hundred and ten until eighteen hundred and eleven; and, further, that the said Dominick Brunett has always submitted himself to the authority of the United States.

ROBERT IRWIN, JR., Justice of the Peace.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On the preceding claim of Dominick Brunett, the commissioners decide that the same be not confirmed.

Entry for land.

I, Margaret Laborde, widow of the late John B. Laborde, sr., of the township of Green Bay, county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby, for myself and heirs of the late John B. Laborde, enter my claim to a certain piece of land situated at said Green Bay, and bounded as follows, viz: commencing on the east bank of Fox river at low-water mark, being twenty chains in breadth, and running east eighty arpents, bounded on the north by land claimed by John Dousman, and on the south by land claimed by John B. Laborde, jr., and marked No. 36 on the sketch of private claims, as exhibited at Detroit, for the inhabitants of Green Bay, in 1821.

As witness my hand, at Green Bay aforesaid, this 18th day of September, A. D. 1823.

MARGARET ^{her} + LABORDE.

Witness: J. G. PORLIER.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

Presque Hyott and Gabriel Roby, of the township of Green Bay, county and Territory aforesaid, being duly sworn, depose and say that they were well acquainted with John B. Laborde, sr., deceased; that he occupied and cultivated a certain piece of land situated in said township of Green Bay, and bounded as follows, to wit: commencing at the east side of Fox river, at low-water mark, being twenty chains in breadth, bounded on the north by land claimed by John Dousman, on the south by land claimed by John B. Laborde, jr., and running back east from said river eighty arpents; and that the said John B. Laborde, sr., cultivated said land on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and years previous; and that since that time he continued to submit to the authority of the United States until his decease, which occurred in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-one; and since that time his heirs have been in possession of the same, and have always submitted to the authority of the United States.

J. G. PORLIER, Justice of the Peace.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

In the preceding case, the claim of Margaret Laborde to a tract designated lot No. 36, the commissioners decide that the same be confirmed to the heirs of John B. Laborde, sr., deceased, subject to the widow's right of dower.

MACKINAC, September 3, 1823.

I, John Dousman, hereby enter my claim, under the laws for ascertaining and deciding upon claims to lands in the Territory of Michigan, to a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated on the west side of Fox river, at said Green Bay, and butted and bounded as follows, to wit: on the lower side by land claimed by Pierre Grignon, and on the upper side by lands vacant and unsettled, being about seven arpents in width on said river, and extending back from said river eighty arpents.

JOHN DOUSMAN.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Michilimackinac, ss:

Personally appeared before me, William Henry Puthuff, chief justice of the county court in and for said county, Pierre Ogee, of lawful age, who, having been duly sworn, doth depose and say that on the first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and for sometime previous thereto, John Dousman was a resident of Green Bay, in said Territory, and had the possession of, and occupied, improved, and cultivated, a certain tract or parcel of land, lying and being situated on the west side of Fox river, at said Green Bay, and butted and bounded as follows, to wit: on the lower side
