ROBERT IRWIN, JR., Justice of the Peace.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On consideration of the preceding claim of Dominick Brunett, the commissioners decide that the same be confirmed, subject to the same restrictions, and for the same reasons, as in the preceding case of John Dousman.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Richard Prickett, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract of land lying and being situated at Green Bay, in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, butted and bounded as follows, to wit: commencing at low-water mark on the west side or bank of Fox river; thence running eastwardly along said bank about six French arpents, and bounded on the northeastwardly side by a lot claimed by John Baptiste Venne, and on the southwestwardly side by a lot claimed by John Dousman, said lot being, according to law, eighty arpents in depth.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 15th day of September, A. D. 1823.

RICHARD ^{his} + PRICKETT.

Witness: D. CURTIS.

Be it remembered that on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, personally came and appeared before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace in and for the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, Augustine Bonnetierre, who, being sworn in due form, according to law, deposeth and saith that a certain lot of land, numbered twenty-three, on the west side of Fox river, in the township of Green Bay, county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, now claimed by Richard Prickett, and bounded on the northeastwardly side by a lot claimed by John Baptiste Venne, and on the southwestwardly side by a lot claimed by John Dousman, being about six arpents in width on the bank of said Fox river, and, according to law, eighty arpents back or in depth, was under cultivation fifteen years ago, when he, the said Augustine Bonnetierre, first came to this country; and that he has personal knowledge that the above-described tract of land has since that time been under constant and yearly cultivation either by Pierre Concit himself or by the present occupant, the said Richard Prickett.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On examination of the preceding claim of Richard Prickett, it appears to have been confirmed by a previous board to the present claimant.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Joseph Jourdin, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract of land lying and being in the township of Green Bay, in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, bounded and butted as follows, to wit: commencing at low-water mark on the east side of Fox river, and running east eighty arpents, and bounded on the south by a certain tract confirmed to Domittille Longevin, east by wild lands, north by a certain tract claimed by Francis Laventure, west by Fox river, being four arpents in breadth.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 12th day of September, 1823.

JOSEPH JOURDIN.

Witness: ROBERT IRWIN, Jr.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

Be it remembered that on the fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace within and for the county aforesaid, personally came and appeared Francis Laventure of said county, who, being sworn in due form, deposeth and saith that he has personal knowledge of Joseph Jourdin having cultivated as a meadow a certain tract of land lying and being situated in the county aforesaid, commencing at low-water mark on the east bank of Fox river, and running east indefinitely, bounded on the south by a tract claimed by Domittille Longevin, on the east by wild lands, and on the north by a tract claimed by Francis Laventure, and on the west by Fox river, four arpents in breadth on said river, be the same more or less—from the year one thousand eight hundred and eight until the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen; and that the said Joseph Jourdin remained neutral towards the United States in the late war.
