

eight French arpents; thence westwardly eighty arpents; thence northwardly eight arpents; thence eastwardly eighty arpents, to the place of beginning, on the south bank of said Duck creek, containing six hundred and forty acres, or French arpents, be the same more or less.

BAZILLE ^{his}  LA ROCK.
mark.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, at Green Bay, this 18th September, 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, JR., J. P.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

No proof appearing that the claimant occupied the tract in question, or has acquired the rights of the occupant, the claim is not confirmed.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Daniel Curtis, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract, lot, or parcel of land situated in the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, at a certain place on the Fox river called the Grand Cockalin, on the left bank of said Fox river, bounded as follows, to wit: eastwardly by a lot claimed by Paul Ducharme, westwardly by wild lands, northwardly by wild lands, and southwardly by the aforesaid Fox river, at low-water mark, being eight arpents in width along the shore of said river, and extending back northwardly from the same eighty French arpents, be the same more or less.

Signed and delivered at Green Bay this 15th day of September, 1823.

DANIEL CURTIS.

Witness: GEO JOHNSON.

Be it remembered that on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, personally came and appeared before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace in and for said county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, Amable Normon, who, being duly sworn and qualified according to law, deposeth and saith that for many years before the late war between the United States and Great Britain he has personal knowledge of the cultivation and improvement, to wit: clearing, fencing, and sowing, of a certain tract, lot, or parcel of land, on its front, situated in the county and Territory aforesaid, at a place on the Fox river called the Grand Cockalin, butted and bounded as follows, to wit: eastwardly by a lot claimed by Paul Ducharme, westwardly by wild lands, northwardly by wild lands, and southwardly by the aforesaid Fox river, at low-water mark, being eight arpents in width more or less, along the shore of said river, and extending back or northwardly from the same eighty arpents, be the same more or less.

AMABLE ^{his}  NORMAN.
mark.

Sworn and subscribed before me, at Green Bay, this 18th day of September, 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, JR., Justice of the Peace.

Be it remembered that on the eighteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, personally came and appeared before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace in and for the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, Bazille La Rock, who, being duly sworn and qualified according to law, deposeth and saith that for many years before the late war between the United States and Great Britain he has personal knowledge of the cultivation of a certain tract, lot, or parcel of land, on its front, situated in the county and Territory aforesaid, at a place on Fox river called the Grand Cockalin, butted and bounded as follows, to wit: eastwardly by a lot claimed by Paul Ducharme, westwardly and northwardly by wild lands, and southwardly by the aforesaid Fox river, at low-water mark, being eight arpents in width along the shore of said river, and extending back or northwardly from the same eighty French arpents, be the same more or less.

BAZILLE ^{his}  LA ROCK.
mark.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, at Green Bay, this 18th September, 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, JR., Justice of the Peace.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

No proof appearing that the claimant, Daniel Curtis, was the occupant of the tract described in the preceding claim, or has acquired the rights of the occupant, the claim is not confirmed.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Alexis Gardapier, of the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract of land lying on the west bank of Fox river, and more particularly known as being a vacant strip lying between tract number one, confirmed to Jaques Porlier, on the north, and tract number two, confirmed to Lewis Grignon, on the south, commencing at low-water mark, and running west eighty arpents, and in width three arpents, on the aforesaid river. Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 16th day of September, 1823.

ALEXIS ^{his}  GARDAPIER.
mark.

Witness: ROBERT IRWIN, JR.