

Lot No. 33, east.

GREEN BAY, September 2, 1823.

I, John Baptist S. Jacobs, hereby enter my claim, under the act for ascertaining and deciding upon claims to lands in the Territory of Michigan, to a tract of land lying, being, and situated on the east bank of Fox river, within the township of Green Bay, in said Territory, being lot No. 33, and butted and bounded as follows, to wit: north by lands claimed by John Lawe, south by a tract of land used and occupied by the widow Chevalier, and running east eighty arpents, and being in breadth three arpents.

J. BT. S. JACOBS.

Witness: ROBERT IRWIN, Jr.

TERRITORY OF MICHIGAN, County of Brown, ss:

Be it remembered that on the fifteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, before me, Robert Irwin, jr., one of the justices of the peace within and for the county of Brown, personally came and appeared Joseph Jourdin, of said county, who, being sworn in due form, deposeth and saith that he has certain and personal knowledge of John Baptist S. Jacobs having occupied and cultivated as a farm a certain tract of land lying in the county of Brown, commencing at low-water mark on the Fox river, and running east indefinitely, and bounded as follows, to wit: on the south by a tract of land claimed by Baptist Chevalier, on the east by uncultivated lands, on the south by a tract claimed by John Lawe, on the west by Fox river, being, to the best of his belief, three arpents in width on the river aforesaid, and number thirty-three, since the year eighteen hundred and nine until the present date, without intermission; and further, that the said John B. S. Jacobs did remain neutral during the late war with Great Britain.

JOSEPH JOURDIN.

The within and foregoing instrument of writing sworn and subscribed to before me, at Green Bay, the 15th day of September, A. D. 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, Jr., J. P.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

On the preceding claim of J. B. S. Jacobs, the commissioners decide that the same be confirmed, provided that it shall not interfere with the claim of John Lawe on Devil river.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Eustis La Bœuff, of Green Bay township, and county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby enter my claim to a certain lot of land lying and being situated in township and county aforesaid, bounded and butted as follows, to wit: commencing at low-water mark, and running east eighty arpents, bounded on the north by a lot claimed by Dominique Brunett, on the south by a small river, on the west by said Fox river, being in breadth about three and a half arpents.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 17th day of September, A. D. 1823.

Sworn and subscribed to before me, at Green Bay, this 18th September, 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, Jr., J. P.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

In the preceding claim of Eustis La Bœuff, the commissioners decide that the claim be confirmed, provided it shall not interfere with any confirmations heretofore made, or which have or may be made, by this board, and that it shall not exceed eighty arpents from front to rear.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Augustus La Bœuff, of the county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract of land lying in the township of Green Bay, commencing at low-water mark on the east bank of Fox river, and running east indefinitely, and bounded on the south by a tract claimed by Amable Normon, on the east by wild lands, and on the north by a tract claimed by Dominique Brunett, on the west by Fox river, and being in breadth four arpents.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, the 16th day of September, 1823.

AUGUSTUS ^{his} LA BŒUFF.
