Sworn and subscribed to before me, at Green Bay, this 18th day of September, 1823.

ROBERT IRWIN, JR., J. P.

NOVEMBER 1, 1823.

In the preceding case the commissioners decide that the claim be confirmed, provided it does not interfere with any confirmations heretofore made, or which have or may be made by this board, and that it shall not extend more than eighty arpents from front to rear.

GREEN BAY, September 8, 1823.

I, Dominique Brunett, do enter my claim to a certain tract of land lying and being situated in the township of Green Bay, and butted and bounded as follows: on the north by lands on which Fort Howard stands, on the south by a tract of land claimed by James Neau, commencing and running west eighty arpents from Fox river, being two and a half arpents in breadth.

DOMINIQUE ^{his}  BRUNETT.

Witness: ROBERT IRWIN, Jr.

DETROIT, November 1, 1823.

In the preceding case the commissioners decide that, no testimony being adduced in support of the claim, the same be not confirmed.

Entry of a tract of land.

I, Alexis Gardapier, of Green Bay, county of Brown and Territory of Michigan, do hereby enter my claim to a certain tract of land situated in the county aforesaid, commencing at low-water mark on the east bank of Fox river, and running east eighty arpents; and bounded on the north by Brisk Hyott, east by wild lands, south by a tract claimed by George Ticker, west by Fox river, and more particularly distinguished by a large rock that divides said tract from Brisk Hyott on the north, and being four arpents in breadth.

Witness my hand, at Green Bay, this 16th day of September, 1823.

ALEX. ^{his}  GARDAPIER.
