WAUN-NAU-CON, alias

JOHN W. QUINNEY

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., April 12th, 1852.

A

WASHINGTON, D. C., ss:

The undersigned, John Hadocks, of the Town of Stockbridge, County of Madison, in the State of New York, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that I was well acquainted with John W. Quinney's grandfather (on his mother's side), whose name was David Nau-nau-neek-nuk. He lived in the same Town, County, and State, where this deponent now resides, and we were neighbors for nearly twenty years, unto the day of his death, which happened in the month of May, in the year of our Lord, 1821. He, the said David Nau-nau-neek-nuk, had the reputation of being one of the Brave Stockbridge Indian Warriors of the American Revolution.

The said John Hadocks doth further depose and say, that the said David Nau-nau-neek-nuk would sometimes meet this deponent's father, who was another American Revolutionist, when they would have a real chat together, and recount to one another the scenes of White Plains, Saratoga, and many other hard fights and skirmishes had with the enemy in the Northern District, during the Revolutionary war. This deponent doth further depose and say, that he had often heard the said David Nau-nau-neek-nuk say, that he had enlisted in the regular army a few times, for short periods, but did not like that mode of warfare so well as his own, which he called the Bush fight. And further this deponent saith not. Given at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of March, A. D., 1852.
