

III.—The longitude.

The above determination of the Prairie du Chien time, on the night of July 13th, combined with the Chicago time, as determined on the nights of July 12th and 15th, already given in their proper places, together with the following telegraphic signals, gives the longitude of our Prairie du Chien Station, as follows: