

in both branches of the legislature in that State. He raised a regiment of cavalry for the Mexican War, but peace taking place, they were discharged before marching. He was auditor of the postoffice department under Polk's administration. He settled at Oshkosh in 1850.

Enoch Isham died at Delavan, June 21st, in his ninety-third year. He was born in Connecticut, July 26, 1787. He moved from Chenango Co., N. Y., to Walworth Co., Wis., in 1846.

Gen. Luther A. Cole died at Denver, Colorado, June 22d, in his sixty-eighth year. He was born at Charleston, Vermont, Nov. 1st, 1812, and settled at Watertown, Wis., Dec. 27th, 1836. He built a mill there, and engaged largely in business, and served in the legislature in 1859. In after years, he spent part of his time at Denver, where he had property interests, and part at Watertown.

Mrs. Amanda M. Bull died at Racine, June 22d, at the age of eighty-three years. Born at South East, Dutchess Co., N. Y., Jan. 9th, 1797, married to De Grove Bull, and removed from Cayuga Co., N. Y., in 1846, to Racine.

Mrs. Emily Whitney died at Green Bay, June 29th, at the age of sixty-seven years. She was born at Whitehall, N. Y., June 11th, 1813, and was married to Capt. Daniel M. Whitney, 2d Aug., 1837, when she settled at Green Bay—her husband having preceded her in residence there three or four years.

Mrs. Ann Knight died at Whitewater, July 12th, at the great age of one hundred years.

Rev. Spencer Carr died at Parkersville, Kansas, Sept. 13th, at the age of seventy years. He had been a pioneer Baptist preacher of La Crosse valley, a writer on the history and settlement of that region, and went to Kansas in 1871.

Col. Stephen V. R. Ableman died at Ableman, Sauk Co., July 17th, in his seventy-first year. He was born in Bethlehem, Albany Co., N. Y., Dec. 25th, 1809. His father, a native of Germany, was a soldier of the Revolution. Early removing to Albany, the son received a good education, rose from a drummer to a colonel in the militia, and a city alderman; in 1845 he moved to Milwaukee and in 1850 to Sauk County. In 1853, he was appointed by President Pierce U. S. marshal for Wisconsin, serving five years. He did much by his enterprise in building up the region in which he lived. He was almost a giant in size and strength, but genial and kind-hearted to all.

Rev. John Kitchell died at Wrightstown, July 23d, in his eightieth year. He had lived in Wisconsin over twenty years, and been a member of the order of Odd Fellows fully forty years.

Rev. W. A. Potter, pastor of the Baptist church at Monticello, died at that place July 24th, aged sixty years. He had been a preacher twenty-eight years, and a resident of Wisconsin since 1859.

Hon. John Bosustow died in Yorkville, Racine Co., July 25th, in his sixty-third year. He was born in Paul, Cornwall Co., England, Dec. 28th, 1817, and settled in Yorkville in 1844. He held various local offices, including