

I hope that you will continue your efforts in ensuring this peace, which is so much desired by the whole world.

I will take care to inform them at Quebec by the first opportunity of your success. The two Indians have received presents for their trouble and provisions, to take back with them for their nourishment. The savages will bring the gun you sent for.

Awaiting the pleasure of seeing you this spring, I am

Yr. very humble servant,

PETER DRUMMOND,

Commanding.

Capt. Langlade.
