

vice at the mouth of Fox River of the Illinois, May 29, 1832, in Capt. Elijah Iles' company. The Lieutenants in this company were I. M. Harrison and H. B. Roberts. The value of his (Mr. Lincoln's) arms was $40; of his horse and equipments $120. I mustered him out of the service at the Rapids of the Illinois, June 16, and again into service, at the same place, June 20, in Capt. Jacob M. Early's company, whose Lieutenants were G. W. Glasscock and B. D. Rush. The value of Mr. Lincoln's arms was $15, his horse and equipments, $85.

My memoranda enables me also to give you the dates of my term of service in the Black Hawk War. It commenced May 9, 1832, and closed October 11th of the same year.

ROBERT ANDERSON, Brig.-Gen. U. S. A.