31. WILLIAM BLOUNT, A. L. S., July 5, 1797, one page, in good condition. This letter is interesting, as referring to his impeachment, and expulsion from the United States Senate, apparently addressed to some friend in Tennessee, where he resided:

"In a few days," he writes, "you will see published, by order of congress, a letter said to have been written by me to James Carey. It makes a damnable fuss here. I hope, however, the people upon the Western Waters will see nothing but good in it, for so I intended it—especially for Tennessee. When I shall be in Tennessee is uncertain; but come when I will, I trust they will view that particular act as well-intended, as all my political conduct ever has been towards them.

"I leave Philadelphia in a few hours, probably not to return to it shortly. Allison is incog. Nothing is done for you. You had best look to yourself. I suspect the Natchez will not now suit you. Byers is a rascal."
