

Jean B^t Corbin, for the trade of Lac Courtoreille¹ and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 31 July, 1821.

Eustache Roussain, for the trade of Folleavoine and its dependencies. 31 July, 1821.

Goodrich Warner, for the trade of Ance Quirvinan² and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 2 August, 1821.

Joseph Rolette, for the trade of the Upper Mississippi and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 15 August, 1821.

William H. Wallace, for the trade of the Lower Wabash and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 22 August, 1821.

Joseph Bertrand, for the trade of St. Joseph's (of Lake Michigan) and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 22 August, 1821.

Jeremie Clairemont, for the trade of Iroquois River and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 22 August, 1821.

Madeline Laframboise, for the trade of Grand River and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 3 September, 1821.

Joseph Rolette, for the trade of the Upper Mississippi and its dependencies. 1822.

Louis Personneau, Sen^r, for Illinois River Outfit. Michilimackinac, Aug^t 12, 1822.

Truman A. Warren,³ for the trade of Lac du Flambeau, and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, July 15, 1822.

William Morrison and others, for the trade of Fond du Lac and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, July 20, 1822.

Jean B^t Corbin, for the trade of Lac Courtoreille and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, July 23, 1822.

John Holliday, for the trade of Ance Quirvinan and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, 26 July, 1822.

William H. Wallace, for the trade of the Lower Wabash and its dependencies. Mackinac, Aug^t 6, 1822.

John H. Davis, for the trade of the Upper Wabash and its dependencies. Michilimackinac, August 7, 1822.

Joseph Bertrand & Pierre Navarre, for the trade of S^t Jo-

¹ In Chippewa county, Wis.—Ed.

² L'Anse, Michigan upper peninsular; sometimes written "L'Anse Quivy-we-nong."—Ed.

³ Warren, in 1822, was the chief trader at La Pointe, being the son-in-law of Michael Cadotte.—(Neill's Hist. Minnesota, ed. 1882, p. 404.)—Ed.